SEWING MACHINES

THE AMERICAN CENTENNIAL, 18761

Wheeler & Wilson VICTORIOUS!

Again the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machines triumph over the world. The Contennial Commission have officially announced the awards, and decreed for the New Wheeler & Wilson Two DIPLOMAS OF HONOR AND TWO MEDALS OF MERIT. This is a double victory, and the highest award which it was in the power of the Centennial authorities to bestow. No other sewing Machine received such a recognition. More than thirty of the best producers of machines in this and other countries entered for competition, and at Philade phia in 1876, as at Vienna in 1873, and at Paris in 1887, Wheeler & Wilson lead the list. After a careful, rigorous, and exhaustive examination, the judges unnumously decided that the superior excellence of these machines deserved more than one medal or diploma, and consequently, they recommended Two OF mously ratified the action of the judges, and the public will indorse the decision of these blest of mechanical experts. A claim of equally distinguished honor for any other sewing machine is only an attempt to hoodwink the people. Read the following, which stamps the "New Wheeler & Wilson" as the STANDARD SEWING MACHINE OF THE WORLD.

[From the Official Report ]

Awards to Wheeler & Wilson. 1. A Medal and Diploma for "New Wheeler Wilson Sewing Machine," for the following

#BRIORES ensons:

'A Lock-stitch Sewing Machine unsurpassed in the fine workmanship of its parts, and possessing great originality, great adaptacity to different classes of work both on cloth and leather, beauty of stitch, ease and rapidity of motion, and completeness of display."

2. A Medal and Diploma for "The New Vheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine" for "Superior quality of work in eather Stitching."

These New Machines embrace the elements the original Wheeler & Wilson Machine, ith important add tions-and variations, and iffer from other lock stitch Macuines in havng a Rotary Hook and Bobbin in part of the huttle; an independent take-up; an autonatic under-tension; an improved form of eed, and a better distribution of parts. The points of superiority of these Machines ver other Lock-stitch Machines are very nunerous and important. 1. The Rotary Hook is far easier, quieter nd more rapid and certain in action than the ibrating shuttle, and hence produces a more egular and even stitch, and does far more work with less fatigue of the operator. 2. The Rotary Hock system is more durable and wears far less than the shuttle system, so that the saving in time and repairs soon equals the price of the machine. 3. The simple automatic under tension, or clamping of the lower thread while the " takeup" acts, enables the operator to regulate the lock of the two threads while the machine is in motion, by simply moving a lever, as can be done with no shuttle machine.

4. The independent take-up, which draws up the thread when the needle is out of the material, prevents the chaffing of the thread between the needle and the material, and permits the use of so large a thread that the needle nole is entirely filled, making a firmer and more beautiful stitch and a water-tight seam in water proof goo is, and as the stitch is drawn up, when the feed is not acting, the material is not " puckered," a point of especial sewing, etc.; the rolling evelet prevents the friction of the thread, and allows it to flow with uniform twist and evenness, and the tension or lock of the threads being properly adjusted, the seam with any length of streeh passes from the thinnest to the thickest materials, or vice versa, without variation. 5. The needle is set by simply placing lit ni position; the under thread is much more easily wound and arranged than with the shuttle machine; the bobbin is not threaded as is the shuttle, and being much larger requires filling less often, and permits the use of a cord in place of thread, which is important for many purposes.

6. The range of work with these machines is far greater than with any other, being on any material from the lightest gauze to the heavlest leather, with silk, linen or cotton thread

7. The parts of these machines are perfectly interchangeable, and their form, distribution, balance and movement, secure not only the greatest durability and speed, with the least power, but also the greatest case and convenience of management, and their superior system, devices, material and workmanship constitute them the culmination of Sewing Mechanism and the standard Sewing Machines of the world.

USES OF THE MACHINES .- Every king of stitching, from that required in the heaviest manufacturing to the lightest and most delicate possible, may be done to perfection with the No. 6 Machine; but as there are certain purposes to which the No. 7 and the No. 8 are more especially suited by reason of size or form, some of the various kinds of work to which each machine is particularly adapted may be classified as follows:

and shoes, barness, saddles, carriage trimmings, patent leatner trimmings for harness, horse collars, traveling bags, trunk trimmings, canvas bags, pocket books, and heavy leather work generally. FOR THE NO. 7 MACHINE-Tauor-

FOR THE NO. 6 MACHINE-Boots

ing of all kinds, suit making, cloaks, gloves, blankets, dash boards, curtains and every kind of work in heavy fabrics. FOR THE NO. 8 MACHINE-Tailoring, all kinds of linen work, corsets, skirts, all kinds of ornamental braiding, overalls, shoe linings, hosiery, umbrellas, collars and cuffs, shirts, and general domestic work. Eitner of these Machines is superlor to those of any other system for atltching suspenders, and all kinds of rubber and oil cloth goods.
